The Philosophy of Food
(University of California Press, forthcoming)

Table of Contents

Introduction

1. David M. Kaplan — The Story of Food

Food and Identity

2. Lisa Heldke — Down-Home Global Cooking: Why Cosmopolitanism Versus Localism is a False Dichotomy, and How Our Food Can Show Us the Way to a Third Option
3. Abby Wilkerson — Access at the Table: Food, Disability, and Social Ontologies of Personhood
4. Cressida J. Heyes — Foucault Goes to Weight Watchers™

Food Aesthetics

5. Carolyn Korsmeyer — Ethical Gourmandism
6. Emily Brady — The Aesthetics of Smells and Tastes
7. Kevin Sweeney — Can a Soup Be Beautiful?

Food Ethics and Politics

8. Michiel Korthals — Two Evils in Food Country
9. Robert Streiffer — GE Food and the Ethics of Labeling
10. Jeff Burkhardt — The Ethics of Food Safety in the 21st Century: Who Keeps the Public Good?

Food and the Environment

11. Paul Thompson — Agriculture and Environmental Ethics
12. Matthias Kaiser — Aquaculture and Sustainable Development

Food and Animals

13. David Fraser — Moral Philosophy and the Use of Animals on Food Production in the 21st Century
14. Richard Haynes — Competing Conceptions of Animal Welfare and the Myth of Happy Meat
15. Gary L. Francione — Veganism: The Incremental Abolition of Animal Exploitation

Food and Technology

16. David Castle — Global Food Security, Technology and Policy
17. Stellan Welin & Julia Gold — In-Vitro Meat
18. Gyorgy Scrinis — Nutritionism and Functional Foods